

Associate—Business Brokerage Group

BACKGROUND

Gregg Johnson comes to Coldwell Banker Commercial Business Brokerage Group after a diverse career in finance, management, marketing and strategic planning.

Gregg spent six years practicing as a Certified Public Accountant working with small and mid-market companies in a variety of industries including hotel/motel, resorts, retail and manufacturing companies.

He went on to work for 26 years in the real estate and logistics industries serving as a senior level executive responsible for all aspects of operating businesses including numerous business acquisitions and disposition negotiations. He has demonstrated the ability to craft creative solutions required to complete challenging business transactions.

Gregg services the Brainerd Lakes Area and surrounding communities and looks forward to assisting you in fulfilling your business goals.

Gregg is a native of northern Minnesota and earned a BS in Accounting from Saint Cloud State University.
